Wine-tasting with local delicacies at Cantina Pisoni

Red and white, passion and purity. This is what you will find at Pisoni's: the passion for their craft with the awareness of preserving a territory in purity by favoring traditional and organic farming techniques. In this wine-tasting tour you will discover four different wines, white and red, and the precious Vin Santo, all combined with the extra virgin olive oil of their own making, rustic bread, local cheese, typical cold cuts and a traditional sweet from Trentino. Taking your time, you can bike from the campsite to the winery, which is located in Pergolese. You are guaranteed to come back from the tasting with a pleasant memory: whether it is the local white Nosiola or its noblest son, Vin Santo, or Reboro, a very structured and fragrantly intense sweet red wine. And for the transport? Don't worry: the delivery will be made directly at the campsite. Don't you want to take a nice ride on the cycle path and visit the winery?

Beer with taste at Birrificio Rethia

The history of Birrificio Rethia cannot be reduced to the label of "quality beers" which can be found on the website of the brewery. It is a history that has its roots in the youthful enthusiasm of three friends who started brewing beer in their cellar, as in most mythical entrepreneurial traditions. On top of passion, two more ingredients essential for success were added: study and research. Today Birrificio Rethia is a company that produces craft beer in Vezzano, ten minutes from Camping Daino, and offers its customers a taproom, where you can often sip music as well as beer. What better pairing for a moment in the company of your friends or relatives? The beers really do suit all tastes, but don't forget to try the Mariamata: the story of its name and the mocking surprise of this fruity Pale Ale will tackle your taste buds and light up the concept of "experimenting with taste". Bringing a sip of Rethia home is the natural consequence!

Choose your spirit at Cantina Pravis

Arriving by car in Lasino, just a ten-minute drive from the campsite, you will be fascinated by the modern structure covered with stones of Cantina Pravis that allows a circular and bright view of the valley below, almost in competition with the nearby Castel Madruzzo. The stones are covered in an ivy that changes with the passing of the seasons, reminding the visitor that vine is life, rooting and change. It is with this conviction that Pravis has been carrying on for two generations a wine tradition aimed at the recovery of endangered species with a vocation for the testing of new varieties, including the ones with zero environmental impact. On their website you can choose different taste experiences, many of them accompanied by a walk in the vineyard and a visit to the winery. Sapori in Cantina is certainly a complete experience that will immerse you in the wine and food spirit of the Valle dei Laghi. In any case, you can choose the tasting that best suits you depending on the time available and on your budget.

You will be impressed by the wide range of wines ranging from the typical Nosiola, Vin Santo and Trento Doc to the grappe and by the history of some wines such as the red Rebo, with a mineral and berry scent, born from an experimental crossing of Merlot and Teroldego, or like the "extreme" Kerner, a floral, fresh and aromatic white, which is cultivated at high altitudes with a strong thermal change. You just have to set off, taste and bring home the wine that is closest to your spirit!
